This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is issued by Vision Planning and Finance (Aust) Pty Ltd

ABN 64 608 259 098

AFSL492807, referred to as VPF, “we”, “us”, and “our”.

VPF is a diversified financial services group that provides wealth management and stock broking licensee services. Dealer name is not related to any Bank or Institution and offers to VPF clients access to scale, broad-based approved product access and the support of a listed entity.

Please refer to the website www.vpfdealergroup.com.au for details of the company.

There are two parts to this FSG. Please make sure that you read both parts before making any decision based on our advice. This document is Part one and Part two is the Adviser’s Profile, which includes information about your financial adviser (“adviser”), who is one of our Authorised Representatives. Any reference to an adviser will include the deals of the adviser’s company if they are part of a corporate entity. If the adviser’s profile is not attached, please ask the adviser for this profile or contact VPF Head Office whose contact details are in the next section. Your adviser is authorised by us to distribute this FSG.

WHAT IS A FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE (FSG)

The Financial Services Guide (FSG) is an important document that is designed to help you decide whether to use the financial services offered. The main purpose of the Financial Services Guide (FSG) is to give you an overview of the financial services that are being offered and it provides you with the following information:

- About us;
- What kinds of financial services we are authorised to provide to you;
- The process we follow to provide financial services;
- How we, our Authorised Representatives (and any other relevant persons) are remunerated;
- Are there any of our associations or relationships that might influence the financial services we offer?
- How we collect, use and disclose the information you provide to us
- Our complaints handling procedures and external dispute resolution procedures including how you can access them.

The terms Representative, Authorised Representative, Corporate Authorised Representative, and Advice Provider means that a person, or entity, is authorised to represent a business that holds an Australian Financial Services (AFS) licence. Vision Planning and Finance (Aust) Pty Ltd is the holder of an AFS Licence and is therefore responsible for the financial services provided, including the distribution of this Financial Services Guide (FSG).

As there are many different titles in the marketplace describing such authorised representatives and advice providers throughout this document, we are describing them as Adviser(s) or Your Adviser(s).

Not Independent

Vision Planning and Finance (Aust) Pty Ltd receives commission payment on Life Insurance Products. This allows us to advise and place your insurance without charging you, the client, directly but rather receiving remuneration from product issuers. By doing this we are not allowed to use the words Independent, Impartial or Unbiased when describing our business. For more information on this please ask your adviser.

WHAT KINDS OF FINANCIAL SERVICES WE ARE AUTHORISED TO PROVIDE TO YOU AND WHAT KINDS OF FINANCIAL PRODUCTS DO THESE SERVICES RELATE TO?

VPF is authorised to provide product advice on and to deal in the following strategies and classes of products:

Your Adviser may only be authorised to provide advice in some of the above areas. Please refer to the Adviser Profile (Part 2 of this FSG) which sets out those areas your Adviser is authorised to provide you with advice and recommendations.

Please note that only products approved by VPF may be recommended by the adviser.

If you hold a specific product which is under a class of product covered by the VPF licensee, your adviser may review and advise you on this product even though it is not on our APL. However, your Adviser will not be able to deal in, write or arrange further business on this product if it is not on our:

- APL;
- is a product on which they are not authorised to provide personal advice. The Adviser Profile (Part two of this FSG) outlines the classes of financial products on which they can provide advice.

Your adviser may also conduct separate business activities such as accounting, mortgage advice and other services not provided under our licence. We are only responsible for the financial products and services described in this FSG and on our APL. From 1 July 2014, new regulation requires your financial adviser to declare whether they are a registered (tax) adviser and the tax (financial) advice service they are authorised to provide.

THE PROCESS WE FOLLOW TO PROVIDE FINANCIAL SERVICES

Your adviser acts as our Authorised Representative when providing personal advice to you and therefore we are responsible for any advice given. Your adviser is under an obligation to act in your best interests in relation to any personal advice provided to you (known as the ‘best interest duty’).

Your adviser is authorised by us to give you personal advice, but in order for them to do so, you need to provide them with information about your needs, goals and objectives. If you choose not to provide your adviser with this information, any advice they provide may not be appropriate to your needs.

PROVIDING YOUR ADVISER WITH INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO BUY OR SELL FINANCIAL PRODUCTS.

You may specify how you would like to give your adviser instructions, for example, in writing, by telephone, fax or other means. However, in some instances your adviser will require your instructions to be in writing. For your own protection, you should not:

- sign any blank forms or documents
- appoint any financial adviser to act as your attorney or authorised signatory
- nominate any financial adviser to receive your statements without you also receiving a copy, or
- give your adviser unclear or misleading instructions or false information.

Other documents that you may receive in addition to the FSG and Adviser Profile, your financial adviser may provide you with the following documents:

- A Statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA).
Before your adviser provides you with any personal financial product advice (personal advice), they will collect information about you, your objectives, financial situation and needs. The SoA will set out the advice and the basis upon which it is given. You may then decide whether or not to act on it. It will also set out information about our remuneration and your adviser's remuneration and disclose any associations or relationships which might reasonably be expected to influence them when providing the advice. Any subsequent personal advice that is provided to you may, if it is in relation that has already been provided to you, be documented in an ROA, provided there has not been a significant change in your personal circumstances or the basis upon which the initial advice was provided. Copies of all advice documents will be retained on your client file and you may request a copy by contacting your adviser.
- A Product Disclosure Statement (PDS).
If a particular financial product (other than securities) is recommended by your adviser you must also be provided with a PDS issued by the product issuer. The PDS contains information about the benefits, risks and other features of the product, which will enable you to make an informed decision about whether to purchase the product.

HOW WE, OUR ADVISERS (AND OTHER RELEVANT PERSONS) ARE REMUNERATED

Both we, and your adviser receive remuneration from:

- service and advice fees paid by you;
- Remuneration and other payments paid by product providers;
- other benefits.

All Fees and Remunerations must be paid to us, the Financial Services Licensee. We will then forward on to your adviser their share of the fee or remuneration.

No Fee or Remuneration is allowed to be paid to your Adviser directly or by way of direct debt to your adviser's account.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your adviser will discuss and explain our fee structure with you before we provide you with any financial advisory services. The types of fees you can be charged are listed below. Also, you may be charged a combination, or part of, any of these fees:

- Fee for advice - your adviser may charge fees for the preparation and implementation of the advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you.
- Ongoing advice fee - your adviser may charge a fee to provide ongoing portfolio reviews and/or for the provision of ongoing services. This fee will be either a set amount or based on the amount of funds under our advice, and/or the time involved in reviewing your portfolio, e.g. an hourly rate. Your adviser will discuss these fees with you prior to giving you the advice.
- General Advice / Execution Only instructions
Where "General Advice" or an "Execution Only" instruction is provided, you may request particulars of remuneration payable to us and to your adviser, directly from your adviser. Please refer to the Adviser Profile attached for information about any portion of these fees that we may retain and please ask your adviser, or us, if you require further information about any of the fees and charges that you pay.

Payment methods

Our fees are either invoiced to you directly, or deducted from your investments, or a combination of these methods. Where it is debited from your investments, it is normally referred to as the Adviser Service Fee. In most instances, you will be able to select the method of payment that suits you best. Your Adviser will discuss and agree the method of payment with you before providing you with services. The specific fees and services that you will pay for will be set out in your SoA or other advice documents, your annual fee disclosure statement or client service agreement.

Your current options:

- You may choose to be charged a financial planning advice fee that is based on the time spent preparing your SoA (or other advice document) and is dependent on the complexity of the advice; or
- You may enter into a service agreement with your adviser that covers items such as ongoing advice, newsletters, annual reviews and portfolio valuation reports. You and your adviser should discuss the services to be included and the fee that you will pay. Alternatively, it will be set out in the service agreement provided by your adviser either before, or at the time, you are presented with your SoA.

Remunerations and other payments paid by product providers

If you implement a financial product through us, we may receive payments in the form of initial remuneration and/or ongoing remuneration from the financial product providers. These remunerations are included in the fees and premiums you pay for the product. This is not an additional cost to you.

Investment products held pre 1 July 2013

We may receive initial (upfront) remuneration from the product provider for additional amounts invested in products you held prior to 1 July 2013. Generally, the remuneration will be a percentage of the amount you invest (may be up to 5.5 per cent including GST) and may vary from product to product.

We may also receive ongoing (trail) remuneration from the product provider on a periodic basis for the duration of your investment. Details of such remuneration (which may be up to 1.1 per cent including GST) will be set out in your SoA.

Investment products held post 1 July 2013

For most products with an investment component entered into after 1 July 2013, remuneration, both initial and ongoing, will be agreed to by you with your adviser and detailed in your ongoing fee agreement you have with your adviser.

Risk insurance products

We may receive initial remuneration from the life insurance company for risk insurance products that you purchase and we may also receive ongoing remuneration when you renew your policy. This remuneration is taken out of the premium that you pay and is not a separate charge to you. Applicable risk insurance remunerations are included in the Adviser Profile and will be detailed in your SOA. No remuneration is payable on group insurance policies held within your superannuation that commenced after 1 July 2013. For group insurance policies within superannuation that commenced prior to 1 July 2013, remunerations may be received. Remunerations may also be received in relation to retail insurance policies held within superannuation irrespective of the date of commencement.

Referral arrangements

Your adviser may have referral arrangements or associations with other financial services providers, such as accountants. These are detailed in the Adviser Profile and may be referred to in any advice document provided to you.

HOW WE COLLECT, USE AND DISCLOSE INFORMATION

Your adviser will retain the following personal information on your client file:

1. A record of what you tell your adviser about your objectives, financial situation and needs to enable your adviser to give you personal advice.
2. A copy of all personal advice provided to you. This includes the Statement of Advice or Record of Advice (SoA or RoA) provided to you when you initially received personal advice, as well as any subsequent advice. and
3. Other records relating to the provision of financial services and advice given to you. Ask your adviser if you would like to examine your client file. You can request a copy of any advice document either by phone or in writing. Please allow at least seven working days to process your request.

If your adviser leaves our licence and starts providing financial services under another licensee, your information may be transferred to the new licensee. You will be advised of any such transfer prior to it taking place and you will be given the opportunity to remain with one of our VPF advisers if you prefer to do so.

Your privacy

We are committed to maintaining the privacy and security of your personal information. Your personal information will be collected for the primary purpose of providing you with the services described in this FSG. If you do not provide the personal information requested, we may be unable to provide you with the financial services you have requested.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Finance Act 2006 (Cth) to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents to meet the ID requirements which are determined by the relevant regulator AUSTRAC. We will also retain copies of this information. In connection with providing our services to you, we may disclose information about you to your Authorised Representatives and to other professionals, such as insurance providers, superannuation trustees, product issuers, auditors and our service providers.

We are unlikely to disclose your personal information to overseas recipients. However, any overseas disclosure does not affect our commitment to safeguarding your personal information and we will take reasonable steps to ensure any overseas recipient of your personal information complies with the Australian privacy law. Should your adviser utilise an overseas service provider, these arrangements will be detailed in their Adviser Profile.

Your Privacy

Your personal information will be handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy which outlines how we collect, use, store and disclose your personal information. For more information, including how to access or correct your personal information, or how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, please read our Privacy Policy which can be accessed on our website (www.vpfdealergroup.com.au) or by contacting us on 1300874474 or by writing to:

Please note: -

Vision Planning and Finance (Aust) does not provide taxation advice, and you should seek independent taxation advice from a taxation specialist. Importantly: Haroldas Armbrutis - your adviser is not approved or authorised to provide Taxation Advice.

HOW ARE ANY REMUNERATIONS, FEES OR OTHER BENEFITS CALCULATED FOR PROVIDING THE FINANCIAL SERVICES?

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. The payment options for the provision of financial services will be discussed with you by your adviser and are as follows:

- Fee for service
- Implementation fees
- Transaction fees
- Brokerage/Remuneration
- Ongoing service fees
- Or a combination of the above depending on what best suits the client.

Please note that the type of payment option can also depend on the type of product and/or advice implemented, and your adviser will discuss this with you.

The following is the Fee and Brokerage Schedule of Haroldas Armbrutis of Three Chain Financial Planning Pty Ltd:

Vision Planning and Finance receive a commission from the product provider with whom your business is placed. The amount varies depending upon the fee arrangement agreed upon by you and your Adviser. In regard to Insurance products, in the range of 66% of the premium (gst inclusive) (excluding taxes and statutory charges). Details of the commission will be outlined to you in your Statement of Advice.

The commission is included in the premium quoted to you and therefore not an additional cost.

Ongoing commissions may also be payable upon renewal of the policy, and these will be disclosed to you within the Statement of Advice.

Adviser Fees We will charge for our advice which will include a Statement of Advice. This is generally in the range of a once off payment of $1,000 - $10,000 or an hourly rate of $350 (GST inclusive) for a Statement of Advice which is dependent on the complexity, number of strategies and recommendations.

We may also charge you for the implementation of the recommendations and for the ongoing servicing of your advice. The ongoing service fee can be paid directly by you or you can authorise us to deduct it from your selected product(s). The amount depends upon the type of product and is specific to your circumstances. For example, an investment with of $300,000 with a fee of 0.30% = $900 pa. These fees will be outlined in our Terms of Engagement and disclosed to you within the Statement of Advice and the advice will not proceed without your agreement.

If I cancel in the cooling-off period, will I receive a refund of the initial advice fee?

We understand there are circumstances where you may change your mind following our first meeting. For this reason, we provide a 14-day cooling off period. If you do not provide to us with written notice of your intention to proceed within this period, then you are legally bound by any agreement that you have made with us. We believe that this is a fair arrangement considering the labour and expense that we will incur in developing strategies, documenting this and preparing paperwork within the 14-day cooling off period following our initial interview.

Ongoing fee for advice:

If you elect to pay a fee for the ongoing review of your financial planning strategy, the fee is based upon which package you are recommended, and the complexity of ongoing advice and the services provided. The minimum ongoing fee is to be discussed with client.

Your Adviser will provide you with a Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) each year if you have an ongoing fee arrangement with us. It will outline the fees you paid, and the services received and the services you were entitled to receive in the preceding 12 months. You should let your Adviser know within 60 days of receiving the FDS if you want to continue that arrangement. If you elect to end the arrangement, we have an obligation to stop all ongoing fees and commission.

Adhoc advice:

Where you do not wish to participate in an ongoing service fee arrangement but require ongoing advice on a fee for service basis, an hourly fee of $330 (gst inclusive) may apply.

Other payments we may receive

We will provide you with details of all fees, commissions or other benefits we may receive when we provide advice to you. If we cannot provide this accurately, we will provide worked-dollar examples.

Related Companies

Neither your adviser nor VPF (Aust) Pty Ltd have any association or relationship with the issuers of financial products that might be reasonably expected to be capable of influencing them or VPF (Aust) in the provision of financial services.

Referral Fees and Commissions

If you were referred to us, we may pay the person who referred you a share of the revenue we receive. These fees will be disclosed to you and outline within the Statement of Advice.

If we referred, you to one of our long-term referral partners that we signed an agreement with before 1 January 2020, our share of the revenue arrangement may continue, subject to your best interest. It is important to note that we will only refer you to another party if we obtain your full consent
